Final Enrolment for 2004/2005 School Year

The September 30th enrolment count of students at Edmonton Catholic Schools indicates an increase of 611 students from last year on the same date.

This year's final enrolment stands at 31,585 up from 30,974 on September 30th, 2003.

The enrolment count on the first day of school, September 1st, was 30,974 students, up from last year's enrolment of 29,708 which was also taken on the first day of classes.

The Edmonton Catholic School District showed an increase of students in Elementary, Junior High and High School with the largest increase at the High School level of 320 students to 8,169 High School students from 7,849 students last year.

Dr. Dale Ripley, Superintendent of Edmonton Catholic Schools, had this to say about the enrolment, 'It is gratifying to know that more and more parents and students throughout the city are enrolling in Edmonton Catholic Schools. I would like to thank them for choosing our school district, and for the trust they have given us to provide students with outstanding learning opportunities in each of our schools.'
