

Chair and Vice Chair elected for the Board of Trustees

At today's Organizational Meeting for the Board of Trustees, the Chair and Vice Chair were selected for the 2011 – 2012 school year. Debbie Engel will continue as Board Chair while Becky Kallal will continue as Vice Chair next year.

This is Debbie's seventh term serving as Chairperson and her 14th year as Trustee. Debbie is Trustee for Ward 74. Debbie has been on numerous committees both internally and externally and this year has served on the Professional and Faith Development Committee, the Board Public Engagement Committee and on the Agreement Interpretation Committee for the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees (AUPE).

"My passion for Catholic education remains strong and I look forward to taking on this very important role again in the coming year," said Board Chair Debbie Engel.

Becky Kallal is Trustee for Ward 71 and this is her second year term as Trustee and second year as Vice Chair. Since being elected, Becky has served on numerous committees, including the Board of Directors for the Alberta School Boards Association (ASBA), the Western Catholic Reporter Board of Directors as well as the Board Policy Development and Review Committee.

"I look forward to continuing my role next year as Vice Chair for the betterment of all students in the District," said Vice Chair Becky Kallal.
