

During the course of business, Assistant Superintendents/Principals may wish to provide gifts to staff members. Should a Principal/Assistant Superintendent wish to provide such a gift, care must be taken as such gifts may contravene the District's Conflict of Interest policy, government regulations, or the employee's Association or Union governing documents. Attention should be paid to public perception of such gifts in light of the public nature of our operations.

Reference:	Approved:
	Date Approved: May 19, 2009
Cross-reference: AP 210	Date(s) Revised: