EDMONTON CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Jean Forest (All Girls) Leadership Academy

Senior High All Girls

- Edmonton Catholic Schools is pleased to announce the expansion of the Jean Forest Leadership Academy to Grades 10-12 for September 2010 at St. Joseph Catholic High School.

---

- The mission of the academy is, “To provide the finest Christ-centred learning environment which inspires young women to develop spirit, leadership, intellect, self-discovery and service.”

---

- By identifying female roles in society and understanding what women’s issues are in learning, working and living fully, the senior high Jean Forest Leadership Academy will empower young women to achieve academically and grow spiritually by developing their gifts and talents.

---

- A section of the school will be dedicated to the All Girls Academy.

---

- Grade level core subjects will be taught in an all girls classroom setting. This will be accommodated by enrolment and funding.

---

- The wide range of option courses will be available through St. Joseph High School’s very successful Personalized Self-Directed Learning program: French, Spanish, Italian, Art, Drama, Music, Career and Technology Studies and much more.

---

- St. Joseph High School has active partnerships with NAIT, MacEwan College and U of A, as well as many other social and educational agencies in Edmonton. Students at St. Joseph participate in community service activities as part of their Religion program. As well, students may participate in enhanced transitions to post-secondary school and the world of work opportunities through internships.

---

- St. Joseph High is conveniently located in central Edmonton at 108 Avenue and 109 Street.
