

Children, Youth & Families

Addiction and Mental Health – Edmonton Zone

Community Clinics & Crisis Services

General Information

Children, Youth & Families – Addiction and Mental Health provides a wide range of publicly-funded mental health services and support for children and youth (5-17 years of age) and their families, residing within Edmonton and area (and areas extending to central and northern Alberta).

Treatment services are generally provided by a multi-disciplinary team of health care providers. Our services are goal-focused. We aim to provide the right service at the right time for the right length.

Intake Services

Intake Services: Phone: 825.402.6799
Fax: 780.408.8776

Intake Services provide a single point of access to children's addiction and mental health services within the Edmonton zone. Anyone can refer:

- ✓ Parent or Youth
- ✓ Family Physician
- ✓ Community & Other Agencies

When a referral is received, a telephone-screening interview is conducted by an Addiction and Mental Health Therapist. Based on the information received and the availability of other community resources, a decision will be made regarding the appropriate service.
