Weekly News – “Happy New Year”

Principal’s Message

Hello Everyone:

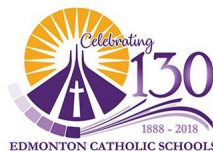

We are into our third week of January and the pace of the year is picking up already! We had our Celebration of the Epiphany last week in the gym – thank you to parents who were able to make it. Additionally, teachers are providing all kinds of extra-curricular programs in the school that take place after school and during lunch and recess breaks. Thank you, teachers!

- Intramurals start this week
- Handbell Club with Miss Newbury is also back in full force
- We are having a Parent Council Meeting this Wednesday at 6:00 – All families welcome!
- CTBS tests are taking place in Grade 6 – parents, there is nothing that you can do to help prepare your child other than the usual get good sleep and eat well
- District-wide PD Faith formation Thursday afternoon – District staff will take part in this day - activities may be off of the building site.
